

Other important topics in EFPT

1. Continuing professional development = take responsibility for developing their knowledge
Knowledge:	Skills:	Competence:
- Knowledge of the treatment mechanisms	- The ability to adjust practice according to new knowledge	- To apply physiotherapy theory and practice when using a horse as a facilitator in EFPT
- Knowledge of evidence base for EFT	- The ability to conduct a literature search and review published papers on EFPT	- To be continually comparing and applying up to date information to current knowledge
- Knowledge of the history and development of EFT nationally and internationally	- The ability to collaborate and respect cultural differences in EFPT	- To be nonjudgmental, open and willing to learn from colleagues nationally and internationally
- Knowledge of how to evaluate practice by reflection and discussion with others	- The ability to accurately and honestly evaluate your own work	- Following reflection continually improving practice
- Knowledge of the benefits of supervision and mentorship	- The ability to talk through professional issues with a supervisor	- To apply knowledge gained from supervision to practice
2. Laws, concept of EFT /EFPT and other Interventions
Knowledge:	Skills:	Competence:
- GDPR - National horse welfare legislation and - National laws about how to offer equine facilitated physiotherapy - Knowledge of the history and development of EFT in my country - knowledge of EFT internationally - Knowledge of evidence base for EFT - d) Awareness of activities available to riders with a disability - competitions, carriage driving, riding for sport or leisure	- understanding and assessment of the need for EFT in my country and the governance for this specialism - understanding and assessment of the different approaches to EFT in other countries - ability to conduct a literature search and review published papers on EFT and hippotherapy - d) experience of therapeutic riding, Para dressage, Para show jumping, carriage driving and other equestrian activities undertaken by people with a disability	- ensuring treatments complies with all national legislations and policies - become a member of national body and HETI and continue to meet with EFT practitioner form other countries - The ability to progress clients from hippotherapy to other equestrian pursuits
3. EFPT as business or other opportunities to practice
Knowledge	Skills	Competence:
- Knowledge of opportunities to practice EFT in the therapist's country. - Basic knowledge of how to set up and run a practice.	- Ability to set up in practice in EFT either employed or self-employed	- Use knowledge of financial structures, marketing, recording and other business matters to set up in practice

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Knowledge of marketing 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Be able to inform the public, clients and other health-care professionals about EFT - Ability to impart information on EFT services using a variety of platforms 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Presenting information on services offered
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Knowledge of business management 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To have an understanding of accounting practices - To have good organizational skills 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To be financially viable - To be able to do a SWOT analysis. - to be competent at managing pricing and finances
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Knowledge of how to promote and influence governing bodies regarding the evidence and effectiveness of EFPT 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Being able to effectively present evidence based facts about EFPT practice. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Being able to effectively present evidence based facts about EFPT practice to a variety of audiences and respond to questioning and provide answers - To be able to provide awareness about the global physical and mental health situation and potential of EFPT to meet these needs